CCH Auxiliary Volunteers

The Volunteer Group at Central Carolina Hospital is referred to as the Auxiliary. The Auxiliary, a 501(c)(3) non profit group, has been a vital part of the Hospital since 1965.

Auxiliary Purpose: to render support and services to Central Carolina Hospital patients, visitors, auxiliary, hospital staff, and the community in ways approved by the Auxiliary Governing Board and the Hospital Administration, and to provide scholarships for medically related studies to qualified students.

Auxiliary Mission: assisting to improve healthcare for the community and support the stated mission of Central Carolina Hospital, Healthcare with a hometown touch.

Auxiliary Motto: "Volunteers Take Time to Care".

Donations and Proceeds: from the Gift shop and Auxiliary sponsored sales go toward helping fund special projects of the Auxiliary to the benefit of hospital patients and healthcare in the community. We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization governed by a Board of Directors.

Volunteers: assist in many areas of the hospital, as virtual volunteers, as pastoral care volunteers or in the Auxiliary This-n-That Gift shop.

Volunteers are special people who give their time and energy unselfishly while provide caring services that supplement those provided by CCH professional staff. CCH Director of Volunteer services will be happy to assist you in becoming a virtual or in house Volunteer as will the CCH Auxiliary President in answering any questions you may have regarding the many needs of the patients fulfilled by the Auxiliary and special projects of the Auxiliary.

Auxiliary Active Membership: annual dues $5 due in January. Dues help to defray expenses such as smocks, jackets, vests, aprons, pins and entitles you to participate in the Auxiliary decision making, hold office and vote on matters brought before the members during annual and special called meetings of the Auxiliary.
